Contents

1 Editorial

3 Gerald C. Nanson. Point bar and floodplain formation of the meandering Beatton River, northeastern British Columbia, Canada

31 Dorrik A. V. Stow and Anthony J. Bowen. A physical model for the transport and sorting of fine-grained sediment by turbidity currents

47 Neal R. O'Brien, Keiji Nakazawa and Shuichi Toluhashi. Use of clay fabric to distinguish turbiditic and hemipelagic siltstones and silts

63 Richard E. Swarbrick and Michael A. Naylor. The Kathikas mélange, SW Cyprus: late Cretaceous submarine debris flows

79 Scott E. Thornton, Orrin H. Pilkey, Larry J. Doyle and Patrick J. Whaling. Holocene evolution of a coastal lagoon, Lake of Tunis, Tunisia

93 C. J. H. King. A small cliff-bound estuarine environment: Sandyhaven Pill in South Wales

107 J. A. D. Dickson and M. L. Coleman. Changes in carbon and oxygen isotope composition during limestone diagenesis

119 Book reviews

121 Forthcoming papers

123 David H. Murphy and Bruce H. Wilkinson. Carbonate deposition and facies distribution in a central Michigan marl lake 137 A. S. Gale. Penecontemporaneous folding, sedimentation and erosion in Campanian Chalk near Portsmouth, England.

153 B. K. Levell. Evidence for currents associated with waves in Late Precambrian shelf deposits from Finnmark, North Norway

167 Lothar Böhm, Rodger Dawson, Gerd Liebezeit and Gerold Wefer. Suitability of monosaccharides as markers for particle identification in carbonate sediments

179 Koichi Aoyagi and Toshie Kazama. Transformational changes of clay minerals, zeolites and silica minerals during diagenesis

189 Ron Goldbery. Early, diagenetic, Na-alunites in Miocene algal mat intertidal facies, Ras Sudar, Sinai

199 R. A. Bagnold and O. Barndorff-Nielsen. The pattern of natural size distributions

209 J. R. L. Allen and M. R. Leeder. Criteria for the instability of upper-stage plane beds

219 B. Cooker and R. Goodwin. Fluidized bed elutriation of carbonate sands

SHORT COMMUNICATIONS

225 H. Honji, A. Kaneko and N. Matsunaga. Flows above oscillatory ripples

231 Anthony Socci and W. F. Tanner. Little known but important papers on grain-size analysis

233 Book reviews

238 Forthcoming papers

241 Franco Ricci Lucchi and Emidio Valmori. Basin-wide turbidites in a Miocene, over-supplied deep-sea plain: a geometrical analysis

271 James D. Marshall and Michael Ashton. Isotopic and trace element evidence for submarine lithification of hardgrounds in the Jurassic of eastern England

291 P. J. Barrett. The shape of rock particles, a critical review

305 Yehoshua Kolodny, Albert Taraboulos and Uri Frieslander. Participation of fresh water in chert diagenesis: evidence from oxygen isotopes and boron α-track mapping

317 J. R. L. Allen. Large transverse bedforms and the character of boundary-layers in shallow-water environments

325 Ronald W. May. The formation and significance of irregularly shaped quartz grains in till

333 C. D. Curtis, S. R. Lipshie, G. Oertel and M. J. Pearson. Clay orientation in some Upper Carboniferous mudrocks, its relationship to quartz content and some inferences about fissility, porosity and compactional history

341 Robert W. Dalyrymple. Surge marks: are they water-escape structures?

343 Peter A. Bull. Surge mark formation and morphology: reply

343 Book reviews

355 Forthcoming papers

357 Venkatarathnam Kolla, John A. Kostecki, Lawrence Henderson and Lillian Hess. Morphology and Quaternary sedimentation of the Mozambique Fan and environs, southwestern Indian Ocean

379 B. Daily, P. S. Moore and B. R. Rust. Terrestrial–marine transition in the Cambrian rocks of Kangaroo Island, South Australia

401 Jeremy K. Leggett. The sedimentological evolution of a Lower Palaeozoic accretionary fore-arc in the Southern Uplands of Scotland

419 Ganapathy Shanmugam. Rhythms in deep sea, fine-grained turbidite and debris-flow sequences, Middle Ordovician, eastern Tennessee

433 Joseph J. Lambiase. Hydraulic control of grain-size distributions in a macrotidal estuary

447 William Wellendorf and David Krinsley. The relation between the crystallography of quartz, and upturned aeolian cleavage plates

455 Yves Beaudoin. A modification of Burger's phi-normal approximation for the moments of grain-size data

461 R. W. Dalrymple. Wave induced liquefaction: an addendum

463 Forthcoming papers

465 Eleventh International Congress on Sedimentology, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, 22–28 August 1982

467 Bruce T. Malfait and Tjeerd H. van Andel. A modern oceanic hardground on the Carnegie Ridge in the eastern Equatorial Pacific

497 Henry S. Chafetz and John C. Butler. Petrology of recent caliche pisolites, spherulites, and speleothem deposits from central Texas

519 W. Nemec, S. J. Porębski and R. J. Steel. Texture and structure of resedimented conglomerates: examples from Ksiąz Formation (Famennian—Tournaisian), south-western Poland

539 B. K. Levell. A late Precambrian tidal shelf deposit, the Lower Sandfjord Formation, Finnmark, North Norway

559 R. L. Hay and Brian Wiggins. Pellets, ooids, sepiolite and silica in three calcretes of the southwestern United States

577 Hilary Irwin. Early diagenetic carbonate precipitation and pore fluid migration in the Kimmeridge Clay of Dorset, England

593 P. Buurman. Palaeosols in the Reading Beds (Paleocene) of Alum Bay, Isle of Wight, U.K.

607 T. Green and D. Houk. The resuspension of underwater sediment by rain

613 Colin F. Klappa. Rhizoliths in terrestrial carbonates: classification, recognition, genesis and significance

631 Ian J. Fairchild. Stages in a Precambrian dolomitization, Scotland: cementing versus replacement textures

651 A. E. Adams. Calcrete profiles in the Eyam Limestone (Carboniferous) of Derbyshire: petrology and regional significance

661 N. L. Watts. Quaternary pedogenic calcretes from the Kalahari (southern Africa): mineralogy, genesis and diagenesis

687 Chantal Courtois and Norbert Clauer. Rare earth elements and strontium isotopes of polymetallic nodules from southeastern Pacific Ocean

697 Reinhard Hesse and Sung Kwun Chough. The Northwest Atlantic Mid-Ocean Channel of the Labrador Sea: II. Deposition of parallel laminated levee-muds from the viscous sublayer of low density turbidity currents
